

Adonai! You are my Shepherd Lord,
When You are near me there is nothing my soul could desire.
You make me lie and rest in green and blooming fields
Healing my soul finds, and Your calm waters quench all my thirst.

Adonai,
Adonai,
Adonai,
Adonai.

Adonai! You are my Shepherd Lord,
You guide me towards Your everlasting and righteous ways.
Though I will walk sometimes valleys of sorrow, death
I'll not be fearful for Your rod and Your staff comfort me.

Adonai! You are my Shepherd Lord,
You have prepared a lavish table before all my foes.
Freely You have bestowed oil upon my head
My cup is running over full of the blessings You give.

Adonai! You are my Shepherd Lord,
Goodness and mercy surely follow me all of my days.
One day in Your high courts outweighs a hundred years.
Oh, how I long to dwell forever and ever with You.
